Voth Takes the Floyd Valline Memorial Tournament

We had our biggest showing of the year for the Floyd Valline Memorial Tournament as 22 OCBC members tried to figure out the bass at Diamond Valley Lake, on a sunny and windy day of fishing.

As they say, "practice makes perfect" and that was the case for Tom Voth who put his tournament prefishing to good use to bring a five bass limit to the scales for 13.16 pounds to take 1st place. Tom caught one of his fish on a wake bait early while the sun was still below the horizon and the others on Senkos.

John Mock wasn't far behind Tom with 12.56 pounds and a five fish limit. John caught three of his fish on a 14 inch Moch Special worm and the other two on smaller hand poured worms, which garnered him a second place finish.

Rick Anderson fished the Margarita Mutilator on a drop shot to take third place, weighing in 4 bass for 9.05 pounds. Thank you Ken Cox for the use of your boat so Rick and John West could fish. We are sorry you had to work and miss the tournament.

Fourth place was nailed down by Richard Cabori who tricked his 4 bass on a drop shot 6 inch baby bass Robo worm totaling 8.70 pounds.

Jonathan Demonet, who is the most feared fisherman when it comes to Diamond Valley Lake, took the 5th place spot and the BIG fish of the tournament of 4.65 pounds to anchor his 8.58 pound total.

A big thank you to all the boaters who had motors that they would let on Diamond Valley Lake for making sure that everyone that wanted to fish had a ride.

Over all it was a good tournament as only 2 of the 22 OCBC members didn't bring any fish to the scales, but I'm sure they caught plenty of short fish.

El Capitan and Lake Hodges on tap for June

As you know, because of the high gas prices we voted to change our normal long range tournament at Clear Lake to a two day, two lake tournament more local. Friday June 3 will be held on El Capitan Lake. After the weigh in, we'll drive to Lake Hodges for the second day of the tournament on June 4th. Maybe we should think about stopping somewhere for dinner on the way between lakes. Think about a good place to have dinner on the way to Hodges. This will certainly be a different approach than our normal tournament schedule, but should make for a great challenge to the Orange County Bass Club, as the winner will most likely have to have a good tournament on both lakes.

Cast From The Past History of the Floyd Valline Memorial Tournament

Floyd Valline was one of the founding members of the Orange County Bass Club and served as the president for several years.

Floyd served in the US Navy from October 1965 to October 1969 and had two tours of duty in Vietnam, the second of which was on the Nuclear powered USS Enterprise Aircraft Carrier. After returning home to the civilian life he was introduced to Bob Simons who started him out as a State Farm agent and introduced him to the Orange County Bass Club. Floyd soon opened his own State Farm Agency in Fullerton California and insured most of the OCBC members boats.

Floyd was a fast learner when it came to bass fishing because it didn't take long for him to win tournaments and such titles as Angler of the Year in 1996, biggest one day tournament weight, the biggest bass record, and the heaviest one day tournament record among others. Floyd and Paulette move to Redding California in 2003 and he passed away after a battle with cancer on May 8, 2008.

The Floyd Valline Memorial Tournament was started in July of 2008 and Dan Vance won the first tournament at Lake Hodges in his honor. Jeff Renck won it in 2009 , Tony Ragusa in 2010 all at Lake Hodges. This year we weren't going to go to Hodges, so will probably make the May tournaments The Floyd Villine Memorial Tournament from now on.

Congratulations to Tom Voth for winning the 4th annual Floyd Valline Memorial Tournament.
